Open Access

Dortmund University Library assists you in Open Access publishing and self-archiving. We offer information and advice on how to

- publish in Open Access journals
- self-archive previous publications
- obtain funding through our publication fund

The publication fund is supported by the "Open Access Publishing Programme" of Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft (DFG) in 2016 and 2017.

Application for Open Access Funds

Funding Requirements

- Application for reimbursement: Form
- The article is published in a 'genuine' Open Access medium: the contents of the journal will be publicly available directly upon publication
- Applicants must provide evidence that they are submitting or corresponding author and as such are liable for publication fees.
- The journal must meet quality requirements, e.g. be listed in the Directory of Open Access Journals (DOAJ).
- Publication fees for an article must not exceed EUR 2.000,-
- Please state in the acknowledgements that the article has been funded by TU Dortmund's publication fund which is supported by DFG:
"We acknowledge financial support by Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft and Technische Universität Dortmund/TU Dortmund Technical University within the funding programme Open Access Publishing."

Invoicing

Please make sure that the invoice is billed to "TU Dortmund Kreditorenbuchhaltung, Zentraler Rechnungseingang - UB, 44221 Dortmund", and that the invoice also contains a reference to Dortmund University Library (Universitätsbibliothek Dortmund, Vogelpothsweg 76, 44227 Dortmund) including TU Dortmund's tax number. It must also be stated on the invoice that the publishing fees are mandatory.

If a publisher does not offer this form of payment, you may advance the amount with your personal credit card. In this case, please fill in the reimbursement form for cash expenditure and send it by email  or post it to Universitätsbibliothek Dortmund.
